

Angus Management

Angus Management is an Animal Detective extraordinaire. He is the finder of lost socks, the guardian of lost people and the go to guy for any mystery or puzzle in Hellenge Hill.

Kirsten Hemingway with illustrations by
LILLY NICHOLLS

MORE ABOUT ANGUS MANAGEMENT:

Angus is an animal detective, with his friends in Hellenge Hill. He solves puzzles and problems- a little bit reluctantly.

Angus loves to sleep and relax but his clever mind is often in demand. Angus has lots of friends and they live all over the hill

These stories are designed for adults to read to their children, packed with characters, language and accents they will be great fun to share.

Also in Audio books read by Kirsten Hemingway.

Kirsten earns her living writing from her home in the Mendips where she has placed Angus and his friends. The landscape and wildlife that surround her have become the inspiration for this series of short stories.

Lilly Nicholls provides the illustrations for this series, her characters are inspired by nature but come to life with fun expressions guaranteed to captivate younger readers.

Lilly studied at Bath Spa University and has exhibited her artworks around the South West.

JOIN ANGUS IN THESE FANTASTIC ADVENTURES:

Angus Management and the Missing Squirrels
Angus Management and the Chief of Police
Angus Management and the Tree Top Track
Angus Management and the Rescue at the Sluice Gate
Angus Management and the Battle with Bleadon Hill
Angus Management and the Gooseberry Thief

For all enquiries please contact: author@angusmanagement.co.uk
Follow our progress on Facebook: facebook.com/angusmanagement