Received

267.8 Open Spaces Committee Report

- (1) To receive the Minutes of the Open Spaces Committee Meeting held on Monday 11th August and to note the decisions thereto:

Received

- (2) To receive reports from the following brief holders

- (a) Allotments

The Parish Clerk was asked to write letters to occupants Plots Lower 8 and Lower Half of Upper 9

- (b) Churchyard

Nothing to report other than that that had been reported at the Open Spaces Committee

- (c) Footpaths & Bridleways

Nothing tangible to report.

- (d) Roads & Transport

Concern was expressed at the information stemming from North Somerset as to the anticipated action being taken by their engineering department who were planning to lay yellow lines in various parts of the village. The subject matter was discussed at some length and it was general agreed that they were not needed and the Parish Clerk should seek clarification.

Concern was expressed at delivery vehicles that appear not to use the Catherine's Inn Car Park when making deliveries but instead park in the road thus causing a potential traffic hazard

- (e) Children's Playground

It was noted that the broken fence posts had been repaired and the required play equipment re-valuation had been completed.

- (f) Newsletter

The next one is in the course of production.

- (g) Website

- (h) Neighbourhood Watch & Community Safety

Nil reports
