

GOV.UK

GOV.UK has disabled a number of National Insurance Number due to numerous fraudulent activity reports in the era of BREXIT. A large number of National Insurance Numbers has been a target of identity theft in this period.

If you have received a notification regarding it then it means your NIN is also disabled under this protection act. You are now required to reactivate your NIN by proving your identity and updating your records.

Information required:

- your personal data which includes names, date of birth, residential address and phone number(s).
- your financial information which you use to report yearly tax and claims.

You will need to complete your application all in one go. You will not be able to save it and come back later. You can take as long as you need to complete the application

Start Now

