

A lush forest scene with moss-covered trees and rocks, and a stream in the background. The text "Development of a natural, native woodland in the UK" is overlaid on the left side of the image.

Development of a natural, native woodland in the UK

WOODLAND
TRUST

- 1200 stems per hectare -allows sunny glades and rides
- 30% forest canopy (e.g. oak)
- 40% sub canopy (e.g. hazel, birch, field maple)
- 30% understorey (e.g. hawthorn, crab apple)

- When planted

- After 3 years

- After 7 years

- After 10 years

- After 15 years

- After 80 plus years

